Feedback from Classes and Representatives
General	Mrs Tracy told the group that the boxes might not be strong enough, this might be why they are getting broken at playtime.. We talked again about playtime games We discussed some of the things we have enjoyed learning this week. Mrs Tracy asked the children to talk in their classes about playtime games that could be played and to remind their teachers about discussing School Council minutes in class.
Hedgehog Class
Otter Class	Coconut Crack Kayden: I enjoyed my 5 times and 10 times tables Ivy: I enjoyed Outdoor Learning and making a boat that was my best bit. Notes from book: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 5/6 boxes have been broken at playtime We discussed being more careful and respectful of the boxes. Some children suggested unbreakable boxes. Could the boxes go on top of something out of the way whilst toys are in use? Half the class like the game ideas
Squirrel Class	Duck, Duck Goose Albie: The thing I have enjoyed this week is spending time with my teachers. Shonali: I liked going to the Christmas Fair even though I didn't know I was going.
Fox Class
Badger Class	Armeen: I like Monday PE as we do lots of fun activities!
Dragonfly Class	Hide a Seek Basketball Joesph: I liked PE today because we did dancing and superheroes. I was Iceman! Alayna: When I had cake at the Christmas Fair!
Newt Class	Tag Kya: Enjoying learning new stuff in maths by taking away and adding.
